Code: 10730

Under construction beautifully designed detached house with breathtaking coastal views and private pool.

This impressively presented home will be constructed on private land blocks, located within the borders of town, on the hill above the picturesque fishing village of Aliko. Designed, in a modern minimalist design, all three available homes consist of three master bedrooms all with sea views, 3 bathrooms, WC for guests, open plan kitchen/dining and living area with direct access to a spacious terrace with traditional built sitting areas from where one enjoys the majestic coastal views and cools off in their private pool as well as 2 private parking spaces each.

They offer floors in one even colour, out of traditional coloured cement slush grout (tsimentokonia), as well as traditional built bathrooms that none the less maintain the modern minimalist design, central reverse cycle air-conditioning, stylishly furnished and equipped with electrical appliances, doors and windows with double glazing and tilt mechanisms, connections to town utilities.
